Public Participation at Board Meetings

The board of directors shall conduct its meetings in accordance with state law.

The board shall make reasonable efforts to accommodate the public's right to hear the discussions and testimony presented at its meetings. The board shall permit public comment at meetings as required by law, subject to lawful limitations at the discretion of the board. The board may make and enforce reasonable rules and regulations regarding the conduct of persons attending, speaking at, videotaping, photographing, or recording its meetings.

The board may, at its discretion, enter into executive session in accordance with state law. The public will not be able to view or participate in the meeting while the board is in executive session, and will be required to leave the meeting during the pendency of executive session. The board may enter into executive session in accordance with state law for the following reasons:

- (1) Discussing personnel issues, including but not limited to hiring or discipline;
- (2) Discussing student discipline or placement;
- (3) Consulting with legal counsel or reviewing communications from legal counsel;
- (4) Preparing for negotiations with collective bargaining associations;
- (5) Discussing marketing or pricing strategies by a board or commission of a business owned by the state or any of its political subdivisions, when public discussion may be harmful to the competitive position of the business; or
- (6) Discussing school safety information as described in 1-27-1.5(8) and 1-27-1.5(17).
