

4005
Communication Between the Board and Employees

Employees have the right to communicate with the board about matters of public concern. Regarding employment-related issues, employees must follow the applicable board policies and/or contractual procedures regarding the administrative chain of command, complaints, grievances and other applicable processes.

When appropriate, the Director shall inform employees of official board policies, directives, actions and concerns.

Adopted on: 8/15/2023

Revised on:

Reviewed on: