

4059
Suicide Awareness and Prevention Training

Prior to starting employment at a school district and every five years after the start of employment, all certified school employees are required to complete an approved youth suicide awareness and prevention training that is at least one hour long. A certificate of completion must be submitted to the school district. The school district will retain the certificates as part of documentation for accreditation. Failure to complete this training may subject the employee to employment-related discipline.

Adopted on: 6/18/24

Revised on:

Reviewed on: